jessica kiely

Holding down a full time desk job isn't Jessica's style - she'd prefer to run the company! Which would explain why Jessica runs two successful companies - her first she created at the age of 19. Jessica's key passions are youth & the community, youth having a voice, study skills, youth entrepreneurship, Gen X & Y career development, the environment, creating a business or inspiring community project, and youth enterprise education. Jess is a 2005 NSW State Finalist in the Telstra Young Business Women of the Year Award.

karen miles

For Karen Miles, following the 'traditional' path from school-to-uni-to-employee left her highly accomplished but wondering what else there was to life! Now running two businesses of her own, Karen's book 'Career Advice you wish your mum had told you' is now a Bestseller. Karen's passions are career advice, women's media, young women's empowerment, media training, life purpose, creating BHAGS! (big hairy audacious goals), Gen X & Y career development, and youth entrepreneurship.

monte partridge

After winning Gold at the 1997 Martial Arts World Champs, Monte's desire to share his knowledge led to his first business - a Kung Fu school. Monte is also an internationally recognised entertainer, magician and stand-up comedian. His passion is for helping young people turn negative problems into positive opportunities, thinking outside the square, and expanding on what you think is possible to achieve! He may even perform a magic trick or two.

kori nemme

After graduating with 1st class honours for her research on a personal development program for youth, Kori is undertaking PhD research focusing on the motivations and leadership of young people. Kori is passionate about helping young people to 'follow their bliss' - using the Hero's Journey as a tool to self development, as well as being yourself/finding your voice, emotional and spiritual intelligence, discovering your strengths, the empowerment of young women, and goal setting.

sacha colbourne

Sacha has owned and run her own business since the age of 18. Sacha's business manufactures natural aromatherapy products as well as designing personalised corporate company gifts. Sacha is passionate about helping young people to overcome obstacles and has worked with youth-at-risk and in young women's self-esteem and development. She also has a special interest in politics, mentoring, the arts, motivation, body image, and youth work.
